Chamber Of Commerce Is Working With Scrub Sire Campaign In Calloway

Better Livestock for Calloway Co. Is Aim of Cooperated Efforts Of Farmers, Schools and Business

The cattle of Calloway county are urgently in need of improvement. Better bulls mean better production of milk and beef. More dairy products mean more money for the Calloway farmer. More money for the farmer means a better town of Murray. A greater county and a greater Murray is the idea all of us can and will work for was the opinion of the committee who met in the Chamber of Commerce office Tuesday afternoon, and reported by Max Hurt, secretary.

The newly organized Chamber of Commerce swung into action Tuesday in joining the campaign that is being waged to rid Calloway county of scrub sires, in a meeting held at the Chamber Building on Main Street, and attended by persons who have already been active in the project.

In recent weeks a group of local citizens operating as a temporary Purebred Association, have joined hands with the county agent and the agriculture teachers in the schools, the field service of the Ryan Milk Company, and interested leading farmers throughout the county in an effort to rid the county of the scrub bull. Through the diligent efforts of these citizens a fine start has already been made, as evidenced by reports from the various groups in attendance from all over the county.

The meeting was called to order by Executive Secretary, Max B. Hurt, who explained that the Chamber of Commerce was offering its services as a co-ordinating agency pending the final set-up of a definitely planned and sponsored program.

Reports on progress thus far were noted by the Smith-Hughes teachers from the county schools and the college, and tabulated by Ray Treon, field man for the Ryan Milk Co. Mr. Treon has kept an accurate record on the progress thus far.

Expressions of interest in the project and a determination to work toward the goal of a county free of scrub livestock came from every person in the meeting. E. J. Kilpatrick, of the extension department of the State University was present and made helpful suggestions.

Others present and taking part in the project were as follows: S. V. Foy, county agent; R. K. Kelley, assistant county agent; A. Carman, Murray State College; Prentice Lassiter, county school superintendent; J. H. Walston, Kirksey; Milton Walston, Alton; Buford Hurt, Hazel; Raymond Smith, Lynn Grove; W. H. Brooks, Training School, all representing the Smith-Hughes departments of the schools in the county; Paul Gibson, director of Kentucky Purebred Association and a local sponsor of Calloway County Purebred Association; G. B. Scott, manager Ryan Milk Co. and Chairman of Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee; George S. Hart, mayor of Murray, stockman, and vice president of Chamber of Commerce; Hugh G. Gingles, owner of famous Gingles Dairy Farm; Clifford Smith, of Smith Brothers Cattle farm, and Clark Freese, farm manager for Dr. Rob. Mason Cattle farms.

Attention was called to the fact that farmers who disposed of their scrub bulls and farmers who purchased purebred bulls were entitled to full credit and publicity. In this connection, it was brought out that a number of good bulls would be made available for prospective buyers. It was also reported by Mr. Treon, that the following persons have recently purchased outstanding individual purebred animals:

Hugh Gingles, Kirksey, Jabe Futrell, near Providence, S. A. Tucker, near Cherry Corner, and Potter Stubbsfield. Bulls purchased by these farmers are of service age. Others purchasing young bulls out of a cow of Northern fame, were: Tom Taylor, Stanley Wall, Brown Ross, and Jack Salmon, Jr.

Ray Treon is making steady progress in his efforts to get prospective buyers of purebred bulls in touch with persons who have them to sell. W. H. Brooks has worked out an excellent plan for bull pens that will prove an exceptionally helpful feature in the proper handling of bulls on the average farm.

MURRAY GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL HOST TO DIST. CAMPING SCHOOL MON., MARCH 19

The Girl Scout council of Murray has been selected to serve as hosts for a one-day meeting on camping and is scheduled for Monday, March 19, at the Murray Woman's Club House. Only three such meetings are being held in Kentucky; the other two are being held in Paris and Owensboro. Murray has 72 members of the local Girl Scout Troops.

Representatives of Girl Scout councils, lone troops and troop committees from neighboring communities have been invited to attend. A program of speakers, discussion groups and exhibits has been planned to help local Girl Scout groups plan ahead for the camping season next summer.

Greatly increased membership in Girl Scouting, curtailment of personnel to serve on camp staffs, growing desire on the part of girls to take part in the Girl Scout camping program are some of the challenges which will be discussed at the meeting Monday.

It is hoped that by pooling ideas and sharing problems Girl Scout camp facilities and programs in this area may be increased so that they will serve a larger number of girls than ever before.

Invitations have been sent to Paducah, Benton, Fulton, Mayfield, Hickman, Clinton, Hopkinsville, Lynn Grove, Pottertown, Kirksey, Hazel, and all towns who have shown interest in Girl Scouts.

11-Ton Bombs Blast Nazis For 30th. Straight Day; Troops, Supplies Pour In

U.S. Troops Are Across The Rhine; Seventh Army Opens New Attacks; U.S. Flag Raised Formally on Iwo

Superduper blockbusters, eleven-ton bombs, the largest ever carried by a plane, are being showered on northwest Germany for the first time as the Allied air blows against Germany run through the 30th straight day. American troops are across the Rhine and are advancing to within three-quarters of a mile of the Frankfurt-Cologne-Ruhr superhighway. The U. S. Seventh Army opened a new attack in the Saarbrücken area and drove a mile into Germany. More troops and supplies are pouring into the expanding Remagen bridgehead.

First Army doughboys pushed up a mile through the hilly wooded country that rises east of the Rhine as they strove tenaciously to knock the Nazis back out of artillery range of the two bridges across the river in the Remagen area.

The Remagen bridge, across which the bulk of men, tanks and guns have poured into the mounting bridgehead battle, was reported to be in better condition now than when it was seized, thanks to the fast and efficient repairs made by Army engineers under direct artillery fire.

Although new and tighter censorship restrictions were clamped on the bridgehead operation, it was permitted to be disclosed that Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' troops had driven beyond captured Honnef at the north end of the bridgehead and had reached the outskirts of Notsched, four miles northeast of Remagen.

St. Catherine, directly east of Remagen was cleared in a 1,000-yard advance and other units pushed forward to the Rhine. The advance into the hills beyond Ginstershausen of Linz. The wide military highway built by Hitler was under bombardment both by American artillery and planes.

Joining in the steady application of pressure all along the western front, the U. S. Seventh Army opened a new attack in the Saarbrücken area and drove more than a mile into Germany just west of the capital city of the Saarland.

The 70th Infantry Division spearheaded the attack and captured the town of Stiring-Wendel, northeast of Forbach, without a fight. The doughboys then pushed on nearly three miles northward to reach the Saar river just west of Saarbrücken. Petite Rousselle and Krugshut were overrun in the advance.

The thrust gave the Seventh Army a new foothold inside Germany along a five-mile front and to a depth of two miles. Since Feb. 23 Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's troops have been drawn up approximately a mile and a half south of Saarbrücken, four-dry-city of 135,000.

Pacific Front: U. S. Flag formally raised on Iwo at Marines score 200 to 400 yard gains in final phase of bloody campaign; American invasion spreads to Romblon as Simian in Philippine campaign; five more Mindanao towns fall as Yanks gain on all Luzon fronts.

Southern Baptist Evangelistic Crusade

"A Million Souls for Christ in 1945"

This is our fourth appeal to the Baptists of Blood River Association for prayerful co-operation with our Southern Baptist Evangelistic Crusade for a Million Souls for Christ in 1945, and in doing so, we wish to add to our former emphasis upon the qualifications of the soul winner, further emphasis upon some Scriptural encouragements in this important undertaking for Christ.

In the first place, we should be encouraged in the undertaking by the simplicity of our Lord's plan of salvation. The world, the flesh, and the devil, have always tried to spread a cloud of obscurity over the simplicity of Christ's plan of salvation; by presenting it as a FUTURE EVENT ALTOGETHER, or that it is conditioned upon SOME BODILY ACTS of so-called obedience, or that it is dependent upon a whole life of good works, so that one can never know in this life whether he is saved or not, or that after all, it is so completely in ONE'S OWN HANDS that he may attend to it WHEN HE PLEASES—all to obscure the simplicity of Christ's ONE AND ONLY PLAN OF SALVATION. But the Scriptures declare plainly and unmistakably that CHRIST HIMSELF IS THE ONE AND ONLY SAVIOUR. (Matt. 1:21; Heb. 7:25; 1 Tim. 2:5); and that neither priest, nor preacher, nor church, nor human "offerings for sin" by bodily acts of so-called obedience, is allowed to stand between the Saviour and the human soul in the all-important matter of salvation. The Scriptures not only declare with united voice that CHRIST HIMSELF IS THE ONE AND ONLY SAVIOUR, but also that "NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION." (2 Cor. 6:2; Heb. 4:7); and not at the Judgment day when the door of mercy is forever closed. (Matt. 7:22, 23). The Scriptures also declare that it is "THROUGH THE OBEDIENCE OF THE ONE THAT MANY ARE MADE RIGHTEOUS" (Rom. 5:19; 2 Cor. 5:21); that He not only saves NOW, and upon the merits of His own "OBEDIENCE," but that He will have "NO MORE OFFERINGS FOR SIN" (Heb. 10:18). He furthermore declares that His salvation from the penalty of sin is "ONCE FOR ALL," AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR INIQUITIES WILL I REMEMBER NO MORE" (Heb. 10:10-17). Thus nothing could be made more simple and clear, than that JESUS HIMSELF IS THE SAVIOUR, and that He does it here and now, and not at the Judgment day.

HOME FEED MAKES HENS PROFITABLE

A profit of $486.83 from a flock of 50 hens last year is reported by Mrs. C. E. Dixon of Large County. The hens laid an average of 203 eggs each.

Mrs. Dixon said the profit was due in part to feeding home-grown grains. The selling prices of these grains were used in figuring the cost of feeding the flock, rather than the higher prices that would have been paid had feed been purchased.

Daily flock records have been kept by Mrs. Dixon since Stanley Cotton, field agent of the Kentucky College of Agriculture, examined her flock nine years ago.

Here are some of Mrs. Dixon's recommendations: Have home-produced eggs of disease-free flocks hatched at a local hatchery; brood only the number of chicks that can be properly cared for; have two lots for chickens, changing about each year; use enough feeders so that all chickens can eat at one time; and use electric lights in laying house from own rising time to daylight from November to March.

You cannot teach a child to take care of himself unless you will let him try to take care of himself. He will make mistakes; and out of these mistakes will come his wisdom. —H. W. Beecher.

CPL. WILLIAM D. LEE WITH 6th ARMY IN FRANCE

6th ARMY GROUP, FRANCE—After two years of blasting Luftwaffe planes from the sky, a veteran Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion of Lt. Gen. Jacob L. Deyers' 6th Army Group has lowered its guns and is giving direct ground support to front-line infantry in the French Alps. Cpl. William D. Lee, Murray, is with this service.

Since conversing in a field artillery battalion, thousands of shells from its snow-packed gun emplacements have screamed across the vast mountain wastes into German positions along the Franco-Italian border. Although it's the battalion's first experience in mountain fighting, it is battling the bitter weather with a hardness that is comparable with its deadly accuracy in wrecking enemy installations.

The outfit's real claim to fame was its ability to down hostile aircraft. In past campaigns, when the Luftwaffe was ever-present, the battalion gained a lasting reputation for excellent marksmanship. At Anzio, it formed the nucleus of the antiaircraft defenses of the beachhead. Repeatedly subjected to intense and sustained air bombardments and simultaneous artillery fire, it changed the enemy in 223 separate fights and was officially credited with 46 aircraft destroyed, 22 probables, and three damaged.

North Africa gave the battalion ample opportunity to sharpen up its aim before the battle of Italy. Defending the important ports of Casablanca and Algiers, it accounted for many of the German planes that ventured over. Sicily and Italy were the next scenes of action, where the battalion's straight shooting and cool courage won a unit commendation and many individual decorations.

In the Course of Human Events . . .

Over a span that is called old age, finds one unworthy but humble traveler, thankful to the river of life that is spared, with no visible marks of divine displeasure, more than is common to man.

My only point in mentioning this matter is from the fullness of my heart for the kind but unexpected expressions from my fellow merchants and friends, and the seeming over-indulgence of our beloved editor, bring me under profound obligations, to be a better citizen, a better and more appreciative competitor of every merchant in Murray, that I may take on myself an obligation to cooperate and come to the common aid of all. Each merchant of Murray and Calloway County shall have my support, and sympathy, to the end that no selfish interest of mine shall cause me to covet the progress made by any of them.

My future profits are of little concern to me beyond a desire to carry on for the support of my sales force, all of whom have been with me on an average of 20 years. If I could pass my business on to other management that would take care of them, I would be happy to retire, not that I acknowledge I am going down for the third time, but would like to be free to use the balance of my years and limited resources to the help of the general public, including the unfortunate, the crippled, the blind, the tubercular, etc., and to aid in the improvement of our rural road system until all sections of our county are made a happy place in which to live, and no day in the year would come when every home would not have a road to school, church and town market.

I certainly do not want to use space in your paper that might be used for a letter from our boys that are away from home to make our democracy safe. I thank one and all and will struggle along with my little business in my fifty-first year. Oh, that I may have indulgence to respect the rights of others.

T. O. TURNER

THOMAS B. EDWARDS SERVED IN ALUTIAN

6th ARMY GROUP, FRANCE—Little heard of in today's mechanized war of jeeps, trucks and tanks is one of the oldest systems of army transport—the pack-mule. Picking their way through winding, treacherous mountain trails and snow-swept passes along the Franco-Italian border in the French Alps, they are bringing up material of war to front-line units that can't be reached by mechanical means.

Pvt. Thomas B. Edwards, Murray Route 1, is with this division. To the men of a veteran Field Artillery Battalion of Lt. Gen. Jacob L. Deyers' 6th Army Group, the pack-mules are indispensable.

Using the mule pack trains to transport artillery pieces, ammunition and supplies over the almost impassable terrain of the French Alps, the battalion is able to support the infantry by accurately blasting Germans from well-entrenched positions. Members of the battalion are not novices in cold-weather fighting. They made their debut the hard way by landing on Kiska Island in the Aleutians on August 15, 1943, as part of an assault wave. After three months on the island in defensive positions, they were ordered back to the United States.

Arriving in Italy in March, 1944, the battalion received mules and reformed into a pack unit. Advancing into rugged Italian mountains where the infantry was fighting tenaciously for each peak and hill, the battalion became the doughboys' life-line for supplies and equipment. When the Allied armies began their crushing drive toward Rome, the battalion played a leading role by giving constant artillery support.

The battalion's present position in the French Alps is the climax of long and specialized training in mountain warfare. After its activation in April, 1943, it went through strenuous maneuvers in the Colorado mountains, learning many lessons in pack artillery functions that were to prove invaluable during three campaigns.

Improved Uniform International LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
Published by Western Newspaper Union

Lesson for March 18

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

THE LAW OF LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 23:31-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
This is the first and great commandment.
And the second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.—Matthew 22:37-39.

Our lesson presents a great judgment scene—majestic, solemn, stirring. Many confuse it with the judgment of the Great White Throne in Revelation 20. But Matthew 23 is obviously the judgment of nations (v. 32) for their treatment of Christ's brethren (v. 46), a word referring primarily to Jews, but also spoken of in Matthew 12:48-50.

The lesson needs broader application, however, so we suggest that we allow the more general principles of judgment occupy our attention. We note that:

I. Judgment Divides (vv. 31-33).
The nations, coming before Christ when He shall have appeared in all His glory, shall find themselves separated into two groups on the basis of their treatment of the brethren of Christ.

The fact that God has drawn a line of division down through all humanity and that each one of us is on one side or the other is not a doctrine which finds ready acceptance with modern thinking, but it is nonetheless a fact.

No man established that division —God Himself did it, and did it in love. To some it may seem to be a hard saying; but it is not, for it comes from the lips of the gentle, loving Jesus.

It is because He loved us enough to give Himself for us that any of us find ourselves on the side of that dividing line which assures us of eternal joy and blessedness.

"They who stand on the other side of the line do so because they have not accepted God's proffered salvation in Christ. Reader, where do you stand?"

II. Judgment Declares (vv. 34-45).
Our attitude toward God expresses itself in our attitude toward our fellow man. That which we do toward those about us is not a matter of indifference, but is the basis for God's judgment of our lives. Each of us must answer for the deeds done in the flesh whether they be good or evil. That is true even of the believer (II Cor. 5:10), whose salvation has already been determined by his faith in Christ.

Here in our lesson, however, the failure to do that which shows forth God's law of love is made the ground of eternal judgment. "This is not because an act of kindness itself can be regarded as the ground of division, but because the failure to give it or do it reflects an attitude of heart toward our God and His Christ, which is in reality a rejection of His way of salvation."

Judgment is thus a revelation of the attitude of the heart, which marks a man or woman as being either saved or lost. It may be possible to so belittle the thinking of our friends and neighbors that we may go through life looking something like a Christian, but when Christ judges, it will all be revealed to us.

Notice the importance of a proper attitude toward those who need our kindness and help. All too often the only concern of men and women is to look out for "number one" and let the rest of the world shift for itself.

Observe also that the Lord identifies Himself with His brethren—what is done to and for them is counted as done to and for Him.
Compare the experience of Samuel (I Sam. 8:7) and of Paul (Acts 9:1).
Touch God's people and you touch
Him. Fall them and you fall Him.
Serve them and you serve Him.

III. Judgment Determines (v. 46).
Yes, God's judgment determines eternal destiny. Life eternal, or everlasting punishment, which shall it be? That is determined by God's final word of judgment, but remember that He judges in accordance with the attitude of heart and action of life on this side of the grave.

Now, for that matter, is a part of eternity, and it is consequently of great importance that we are right with both God and man now if we expect to be right throughout eternity.

We need to face this truth of judgment with complete candor and honest heart-searching. We agree with Dr. Douglas that "we must stand with awful concern before this solemn truth. Do not hesitate to face this because it is contrary to the current of modern thinking or shocking to confront. It needs to be faced in a brave spirit of realism. (As a teacher) you who do your pupils a great disservice if you try to shield them from the grim implications of this truth."

Yes, and also if you keep from them the glorious prospect of eternal joy in the presence of God. The law of life is the law of love—love for God, and for Jesus Christ whom He hath sent to be our Redeemer, and love for His brethren. That law of love rules even in the day of judgment.

The Gospel of Christ

Romans 1:16 I Cor. 9:18 2 Cor. 4:4

What Must I Do?

The world is filled with sinners who are honestly asking what must I do? Many would seem them for even asking such a question, for it is the opinion of some that there is nothing for man to do. Let us say just here, however, that very few people who claim to follow Christ really believe, there is nothing whatever to do. That would mean that salvation is unconditional. Let's face the fact squarely. The question with most people, then, is not whether or not there is anything to do, but what is it that I must do?

But in view of the fact that many honestly think that they believe there is nothing to do, let us examine what the Bible says on the subject. When Peter had preached the gospel sermon as recorded in Acts 2nd ch. we read that they were pricked in their hearts and cried out, men and brethren what shall we do? I have often wondered why Peter didn't take the opportunity here to say there is not a thing for you to do, if truly there is nothing required on man's part. Peter offered no such correction, however. He did say in answer to the question: "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the holy ghost." (Acts 2:38). In Acts 16:29 when the Philippian jailer realized he was in the presence of God's representatives, he asked the same question. "What must I do to be saved?" Paul did not say "You are mistaken about this matter. There is nothing for you to do. God has done it all." But he said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house." The following verse declares: "And they spake unto him the word of the Lord and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes; and was baptized: he and all his, straightway." In substance Paul said you must believe on Him of whom I am to tell you. Then he proceeded to preach the gospel to them. In preaching this gospel, or "the word of the Lord," he told them not only of Christ's sacrifice, but also what He requires men to DO. This is evidenced by the fact that they DID, what Jesus said a man must DO to be saved, namely, believe and be baptized. (Mk. 16:16).

Saul of Tarsus had been zealous in his persecution of Christians, and was on his way to Damascus to "bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished." Suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven, and he heard the plain voice of Jesus in unmistakable words. "What was Saul's reaction when he learned that he was not right with God? Hear it: "And he trembling and astounded said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" And the Lord said unto him, arise, go into the city and it shall be told thee what thou must do." (Acts 9:6). Men today would be quick to say there is nothing for you to do.

Jesus said there is something you MUST DO.
What was this something that Saul lacked, and must yet DO? It was not to believe, for he was now a believer. It was not to repent, for from that moment he was truly penitent (a natural result of faith). In reading the context we learn that he prayed for three days, but still he had not been told anything more to DO. Then God sends Ananias to him. Here is what Ananias told him to DO: "Arise, and be baptized and wash away thy sins, although the name of the Lord." (Acts 22:16) Jesus said this he MUST DO.

Then, Christian friends, let us not be ashamed to believe and tell men that there is something that men "MUST DO." Those are the words of Jesus. In summing up what men are to DO to be saved, we can find no better words than those of Paul: "But God be thanked that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered unto you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness." (Rom. 6:17, 18). The Philippian jailer had obeyed no part of it. He, then, must start at the beginning, faith. (But note he also repented and was baptized). The people who asked Peter in Acts 2 were believers. They had obeyed part. They were told to "Repent and be baptized." Saul was both a believer and a penitent man when Ananias came to him so he was only told to be baptized, calling on the name of the Lord." May God help us to concern ourselves more with what God requires us to DO. If we are alien sinners we see, as has been pointed out here, that we must believe, repent, and be baptized. Have you done this?

"WILL I COME MARCHING HOME TO A WORTH WHILE JOB?"

"I'm just a G.I.—fighting for you...for a decent world
...for a sound America.

Some day, I hope, I will come marching home.
What will I find?"

Will he find a strong America where he will have a chance to go to work and earn dollars which are worth while? Or will he just march from wartime hell to peacetime hell?

That depends, to a large extent, on YOU... on how you spend the money and save the money you are now earning.

If we on the Home Front plan our spending and our saving... if we spend less, save more... then we may reasonably expect post-war America to be O.K. But if we blow in our money... if we try to spend it as fast as we make it... then we're bidding up prices, pulling down the buying power of the dollar, crippling business, heading toward trouble.

Planning is the answer. Take a pencil and work out your own plan for spending and saving. Out of your figures will come a sensible method for spending. Then, too, you can determine how much to save. Put your surplus dollars into War Bonds and into your bank account. Then we'll head toward victory on the Home Front.

The marriage of Miss Mary Virginia Diuguid and Burnis D. Hall of Memphis took place at a beautiful ceremony on Saturday afternoon, March 10, at two o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Filbeck. The impressive ring ceremony was read by the Rev. T. H. Mullins, Jr. before an improvised altar arranged in front of the fireplace. Murray AAUW To Sponsor "Peter Pan" March 31

Children's Theatre Will Present Masterpiece

The role of Captain James Hook, the Master Pirate in Barrie's famous "Peter Pan", will be played by Tom Elrod, a very promising young actor, when the Children's Theatre of New York under the direction of Clara Tree Major brings the Barrie masterpiece to Murray on March 31.

Captain Hook is the dread pirate who is afraid of nothing in the world but another inhabitant of his own Never-Never Land, a bold crocodile that has swallowed his left hand and lives but to make a tasty meal of his right. However, this snoring crocodile has once also swallowed a clock whose continuous "tick-tock" always warns Captain Hook of his enemy's approach. If that particular clock should ever run down, we be unto Captain James Hook!

And this fact is all too well known to the captain of the motley pirate crew.

The chairman of the fellowship committee of the American Association of University Women, Murray Branch, which is sponsoring the performance of "Peter Pan", on March 31 at the College Auditorium, is Mrs. J. L. Hosick, who will have an important announcement to make concerning the tickets next week.

Put yourself in his shoes

Suppose there weren't enough money to bring your child into the world? In a tearful, dejected letter, Pvt. R.'s wife told him she was going to have a baby. There wasn't enough money to pay for medical care and hospitalization. Helpless, Pvt. R. appealed to the Red Cross. In a few days he received word that they had assisted his wife in applying for emergency maternity and infant care.

Suppose you were wounded, disabled, jobless and discouraged? A Marine Private, he was wounded in the South Pacific and discharged for disability. He went home discouraged at the prospect of making his living again. Unable to take up his former trade, in desperation he appealed to the Red Cross. They put him in touch with the proper agency—he's doing swell, now.

Suppose your mother were ill and without funds? Seaman T. M. received word his mother was desperately ill and without money. He remembered advice he'd heard and went to his Red Cross Field Director who requested the boy's local chapter to arrange for care. They did. Now, anxiety lifted, Seaman T. M. is a better fighting man. Another example of your Red Cross in action.

Suppose your son were taken prisoner of war? Imagine the anxiety of the parents of Pvt. E. D., who had had no word from him in months. The Red Cross sent a welfare inquiry. And then the International Red Cross reported that he was healthy and well, and was receiving regularly the American Red Cross packages that helped keep up his spirits. Your money gets the packages to him.

Suppose you were dying for want of blood plasma? The shrapnel and fragments from a shell burst riddled Sgt. R. J. M.'s left arm. He was losing blood fast. A medical corpsman administered first aid and Red Cross blood plasma. Then they carried him to the field station and gave him 8 more pints of plasma. Without it, he would have died.

Suppose you couldn't bring yourself to tell your family you'd lost your leg? He hadn't told them he'd lost his leg...Dad and Mom would take it too hard. But they were coming to see him in the hospital. He appealed to a Red Cross worker to break the news for him. It was a tough job, but she did...and soon Mom was holding his hand while Dad was telling some funny things that had happened back home—and Sgt. J. T. was smiling happily.

The Red Cross can't do this work without your help!

The actual cases outlined above illustrate just a few of the thousands of ways in which the Red Cross helps our fighting men—at home and overseas. But without your help there would be no Red Cross to do this humanitarian work. For the Red Cross is wholly dependent on the money that you and other sympathetic Americans contribute. And after three years of war, the work of your Red Cross is greater than ever.

Think of the pain and suffering you can alleviate by your contribution—and how proud you can be of your part in this heart-warming work. Won't you give all you can?

PRENTICE OVERBEY GETS COMMENDATION IN TWO JIMA

Prentice Overbey, Y-3-c, son of Mrs. Bruce Overbey, wrote to his mother and enclosed a commendation for his participation in the two Jima campaign. The letter was dated February 22 and arrived here March 8. This is the first message that Mrs. Overbey or his wife have had from him in several weeks.

The commendation is quoted: Office of the Commanding Amphibious Group One, Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif., February 20, 1945.

MEMORANDUM

To: The Staff
I wish to express my deep appreciation of the splendid job all officers and men of the staff and the Air Support Control Unit did in planning and executing our part of the two Jima operation. Your long days and hours of hard and efficient work have been attended by results which not only pleased me, but have brought forth favorable comment from the Secretary of the Navy, Vice Admiral Turner, Lieut. General Holland Smith, and Rear Admiral Hill.

2. With such an organization serving with me, I look forward to further operations on a larger scale, with confidence.
W. H. P. Blandy
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy
Commanding Amphibious Group One

The names, Salpan, Araga, Ulithi, Two Jima, Pilella, were printed on the Memorandum indicating that Overbey had been in those campaigns.

A letter from Prentice to his mother is quoted in parts:

Feb. 22—Dear Mom: Although I know that you won't receive this for sometime, I want to send you a note to let you know that I came through in good shape. It is useless to tell you that I was in the Invasion of Two Jima. It was rather tough, but I have grown used to it by now. I can't go into detail to tell you all that happened, but I know deep down in my heart that the All Mighty Lord has heard some mothers' and wives' prayers.

Mom, don't worry about me, for it is all over for a while. There is no need to tell you that there won't be anymore, for you will know that there will be. All that we can do is to pray that I will come through them as I have the ones in the past.

It is about time to hit the sack. I will write you again as soon as I get some mail. It is so hard to write when I do not get mail. Take care of your self.

Your son
Prentice

A letter to Mrs. Prentice Overbey dated February 20 describes some of the actions on board during a bombardment. We quote parts of the letter:

"I was in the Battle of Two Jima and did not get a scratch. I can go into details of the operation but I can tell you that we were the ones that did the bombarding; went in three days before D-Day and really let them have it. I really ripped Tokyo apart. Most of the time while the bombardment was going on, I stayed below decks. The close up firing does my ears no good. There was plenty of blood lost. No amphibious landing have ever been made that did not cost lives. I was worried about this last one that I was in. It being so close to the Jap homeland. We were afraid of the planes. They got a warm welcome from us."

"I have grown accustomed to the public address system on board. The first thing we hear is, 'General Quarters, General Quarters'. All hands man your battle stations. Then in a short time we will hear, 'hit the deck wherever you are. Lie flat.' Then we know that the Bettys are near."

Calvin West, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry West of Hazel, left Thursday night after spending a week's leave with his parents. CASTLE PARKER, Ph. M. 2-c, WRITES FROM TWO JIMA

Castle Parker, Ph. M. 2-c, who was drafted from this county March 17, 1943, has written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burman Parker. We quote parts of the letter written from Two Jima:

February 23, 1945

Dear Mother and Dad:

This is a short note to let you know that I am O.K. I guess you have been worried about me from all the news you have been reading about Two Jima. It has really been rugged here. I've had a few close ones but I'm still with it. I did a lot of worrying and praying the first three days and nights. I can't write much now. Things are still pretty hot, but not as bad as it has been.

We are getting enough to eat, canned goods, rations, and etc. Even butter and jam. I wish I could be at home eating home cooked meals. I'll never be satisfied at home any more. When I get back home, it will take an awful lot to get me out of Kentucky.

How is Elmo doing on his leave? If he has gone through the same things that are here, I can truly see why he is so glad to get home. Love to all, Castle

CHECK YOUR TIRE

The Public Must Realize Its Own Responsibility In Tire Care
Have YOUR Tires Inspected Today—And Do It Regularly!

"Battle experience has resulted in a substantial increase in the requirements of the Army for truck and combat tires. A greater portion of our greatly increased tire-making capacity therefore needs to be directed into the production of military tires. It is obvious that we must exercise every possible precaution to extend the life of the tires we now have if we are to maintain the civilian economy so essential to the support of our war effort. I am sure that the public will continue to respond with careful tire maintenance, if it is fully advised of the necessity of a war measure. Your publicity campaign should help materially to this end."

JAMES F. BYRNES, Director, Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

Automobile Tires Inspected Locally

During the past few days experienced tire men have been checking tires on passenger cars in various areas as a measure of service to motorists in this city.

This Tire Survey is the result of visual observation only. Closer inspection on proper equipment may show need for repairs. Have your tires inspected at regular intervals. Conserve your tires by prompt recapping and RECAP IN TIME. Tire care is your responsibility in order that the full requirements of the Army may be met.
